IFLA’s new Strategic Plan
2010-2015

Four strategic directions are:

- empowering libraries to enable their user communities to have equitable access to information
- building the strategic capacity of IFLA and that of its members
- transforming the profile and standing of the profession
- representing the interests of IFLA’s members and their users throughout the world

Building the case for international activities

- Distinction between types of activities
- Having a specific reason for attending an event
- Promotion of your home institution, culture; prestige element
- Professional return on the investment - networking and contacts
Open discussion

- Knowledge development – no country is self-sufficient
- Level of benefit to the home organisation
- The danger of too much looking inward
- Must convince administration as well as other staff – level of understanding
- Exchange of services leads to exchange of individuals
International activities can take place at home – not just professional tourism
Topics for 2010-2011

- Certification of librarian status – foreign credential recognition: work with Education & Training Section
- Benchmarking activities between national libraries?
- Collaboration with IFLA new professionals
