

PAC Centres: Planning for 2019-20

PAC Centre including address:
IFLA PAC Oceania (National Library of Australia)
Language of Communication:
English
Website (if different to existing IFLA page):
Lead Representative (and contact details):
Tania Riviere (to Jan 2020) Phone no.: +61 (2) 62621349 email: triviere@nla.gov.au
What activities to you plan to carry out to support international cooperation in 2019-20?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identifying needs of libraries in the region through surveys and online discussions• Sharing information on sustainable solutions – through discussions with other Centres and dissemination of information.• Using other National Library of Australia initiatives in the region as opportunities for information sharing and fact finding.
Which PAC Centres, countries or international organisations/institutions are you working with?
A range of countries. This will vary as opportunities arise
Which new countries organisations or institutions are you planning to work with?
See above.
What activities do you plan to carry out at the national/local level in 2019-20?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Strengthening and promoting preventive conservation as a strategic work stream.• Up skilling people on enterprise risk management
What workshops, training courses or events do you plan to carry out in 2019-20?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Risk management for collections
What standards, guidelines and/or best practices will you develop and share in 2019-20?
We will make available any standards and guidelines we develop in house. This could include guidance preservation aspects of exhibitions and loans, selection of items for digitisation including treatment and workflow decision making tools, and a range of preventive strategies and approaches.

How would you like the IFLA HQ to support the PAC Centre?

Do you have any other plans you would like to share?

The National Library of Australia is developing greater inclusion of the indigenous voice throughout all facets of its remit.